Teachers Put On Push
To Fix New School

Classes will begin Monday at the new Stratton school for 482 children, according to Sup't Bert Roens.

Not expecting any inconvenience to the children because of construction, Roens said they will terminate their classes Friday at the Cutter, Peirce and Bishop schools and begin anew Monday morning at 8:45.

Teachers are helping to finish the new school, working afternoons and probably Saturday of this week.

Among other last-minute arrangements in preparation for the Monday onslaught of excited children is the request to the Police department to place traffic supervisors at the intersection of Overlook rd. and Washington st., and Overlook rd. and Mountain ave. A September opening was delayed because of complications. The $866,000 building has 18 classrooms, including two kindergartens. From the September date, the opening was delayed to Oct. 1, then to Dec. 8, then to Jan. 2, then to the present date.

It had been charged that the delays were due to the contractor. Thus, the $74,000 owed to him was cut off until he finished the building.

Also, Roens refused to move any furniture into the unfinished classrooms since it was thought further work in the rooms would necessitate moving the furniture out again.

However, classroom furniture is all in place now, and finishing touches are being made.

Tax Ass'n
Formed Here

Att'y David A. Leone of 11 Foster st., president of the Arlington Taxpayers Ass'n announced today that the Association will hold a general meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 13, at 8:15 in Library hall.

The purposes of this meeting will be to acquaint townspeople with the aim of the association; to elect a permanent group of officers and directors; and to pass on a set of by-laws.

Presently serving as temporary officers are Leone as president; Att'y James F. Meehan, vice-president; Mary D. Stanley, secretary; John M. Jones, treasurer. Serving as members of the Board of Directors are Thelma Burgland, Philip Clark and Daniel F. Shea, Jr.

A nominating committee was appointed by Leone and will make their report at this general building. Steven C. Sinney, field representative of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers Ass'n will address and guide the Association at this meeting.

"We have a tremendous amount of work ahead, if we are going to intelligently attack our local tax problems. The first great essential is to build a solid loyal membership from all elements of the community," Leone said.

Eligible for membership are all voters — men and women — in the community, and persons who pay taxes in the community but reside elsewhere.

Leone in conclusion said "The Arlington Taxpayers Association is not restricted to property owners. Those who pay rent in most instances, have increases passed on to them. As stated previously, every voter is welcome to join this non political group. Through strength of numbers we can make our voices heard."

World War I Vets
To Be Installed

The officers of the newly formed Barracks 2701 of World War I Veterans will be installed on Monday, Feb. 5, at 8:15 p.m. at Junior Library hall.

The charter issued to this newly formed organization will remain open throughout this meeting and all veterans of World War I with an honorable discharge may become charter members. The following officers will be installed:

Commander, Edward J. Connor; Senior vice commander, Hobart Sanborn; junior vice commander, Frank Nixon; chaplain, Harold J. Shaw.

Also, judge advocate, Russell Jones; quartermaster, Andrew Magnus; sergeant-at-arms, William Brouillette; trustees, Charles Jacques, Roy Fogarty and William McCarty.

Gym Student
Stricken, Dies

An Arlington High school sophomore, Robert Willis, 17, collapsed during a gym period at school Tuesday and died from a "cardiac arrest" one hour later at Symmes hospital.

Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maehugh Willis of 118 Varnum st., was warming up with calisthenics and suffered a heart seizure, according to a school spokesman, who said the youth had a history of heart trouble.

Artificial respiration was administered by physical education director William F. Lowder and the school physician, Dr. L. Curtis Foye, with two nurses and the Fire department's resuscitator, later also tried to revive the boy.

He was taken by police ambulance to Symmes and pronounced dead by Dr. Foye at 11:25 a.m.

He leaves his parents, a brother William, and his sisters Ronna and Michelle.

A solemn mass of requiem will be sung Friday at 9 a.m. at Immaculate Conception church (Lithuanian) Cambridge.

SPEAKER at Feb. 4 general meeting of Fernald League will be Assistant District Attorney Edward "Ted" Kennedy.

and Porteus; David M. Parrella of 22 Mystic Valley pkwy.; Thomas J. Galvin Jr. of 201 Appleton st.; Leonard Clark, 256 Mountain ave., and William K. Burke of 80 Brantwood rd.

COLLINS
CORNER

Word was received last week of the death of former Arlington High school teacher Henry Epstein in New York City. Mr. Epstein was Supreme Court Justice for the state of New York, elected to that position in 1955.

A native of Brooklyn, he attended Harvard on a Pulitzer scholarship and graduated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He received a degree from Harvard Law school in 1921 after serving as a lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy during World War I. He was appointed a teacher in Arlington by Sup't of Schools John F. Scully while still going to Harvard.

He taught English, debating and public speaking and was captain of the Harvard Debating Team. Many students from Arlington High attended the Harvard-Yale Debate on Women's suffrage which was won by Harvard. David I. Walsh, Governor of Mass. and later U.S. Senator, presided. Justice Epstein drew wide attention in July 1959 when he barred the Arabian-American Oil company from

Youths Win Top Music Honors

ARLINGTON youth, Glenn Thoren, is congratulated for his winning composition in the "Adventures in Music" competition by Frederick Welkey, director of the De Cordova Museum. His sister and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Thoren of 148 Claremont ave., are very proud.

Glenn Thoren, 11, and Barbara Truelson, 10, are the first and second prize winners in the musical competition sponsored by "Adventures in Music" in cooperation with De Cordova Museum of Lincoln.

The short compositions which Glenn and Barbara entered in the competition were chosen from more than 100 pieces submitted by children from Lexington, Arlington, Wayland, Sudbury, Weston and Lincoln.

Winners were chosen by Kalman Novak, conductor of the Adventures in Music Symphony Orchestra which has presented a series of children's concerts for Arlington and surrounding towns this season.

Glenn lives at 118 Claremont ave. and Barbara at

1404 Interviews In 1961

At the annual Arlington Family Service Ass'n meeting Jan. 26 the following officers were elected for one year:

Mrs. J. P. Bower, president; Mrs. Warren S. Berg, vice president; Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard, secretary; Mrs. Gayle W. Forbush, treasurer.

Directors for two years: Charles H. Downs, Robert L. Smith, Creelman F. McKenzie, Mrs. Eli Reingold, Mrs. William C. McCarthy, Mrs. Alfred Yood.

The group heard Flora

Hunt, local supervisor, explain that her cases "are not of the story book nature, where problems are solved with a happily ever after ending." Having 1404 interviews in 1961, Miss Hunt's aim is to help the client better handle her own situation.

Speaking at the meeting also, Eleanor Clark of the Massachusetts General hospital's psychiatric clinic said 1600 people were helped in the clinic, which has a new emergency ward staffed around the clock.

Four To Be Ordained By His Eminence Cardinal Cushing

Rev. William M. Helmick, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Helmick of 12 Alton st., will be ordained a priest on Friday, Feb. 2 at 9 a.m. in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston. The ordaining prelate will be His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston.

Father Helmick will celebrate a Solemn mass on Sunday, Feb. 4 at 10:30 in the Church of St. Agnes, Arlington.

Officers of the Mass will be as follows: Assistant Priest, Rt. Rev. Oscar R. O'Gorman, pastor of St. Agnes; Preacher, Rev. Edward R. Kenealy, chaplain to the Cambridge hospitals; Deacon, Rev. William J. Linehan, of St. Brendan's, Dorchester; Subdeacon, Rev. John B. McCormack, of St. James, Salem; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. John D. Barry, of St. John's, Peabody.

Father Helmick attended St. Agnes Grammar school and Matignon High school. He entered the Cardinal O'Connell seminary in Jamaica Plain in September of 1954, and completed his studies at St. John's seminary, Brighton.

Richard Walter Visbisky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Visbisky of 214 Mountain ave., will be ordained to the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church on Friday, Feb. 2 at 9 a.m. in St. Stephen's church in Framingham.

Father Visbisky graduated from Matignon High school in 1954, attended the Cardinal O'Connell Minor Seminary in Jamaica Plain for two years, and St. John's Seminary in Brighton for six years.

The first solemn mass celebrated by Father Visbisky will be held in St. James the Apostle Parish in Arlington Heights at 12 noon on Sunday, Feb. 4. The ministers of the Mass include Rev. George Brennan, Pastor of St. James, as Assistant Priest; Rev. Anthony Dickson as Deacon; Rev. Gerald Horgan as Subdeacon. The preacher will be Rt. Rev. Lawrence J. Riley, professor at St. John's Seminary. Music will be provided by Mr. Berj Zamkochian and the St. Theresa Choral.

The reception and first priestly blessings of Father Visbisky will be held at the Knights of Columbus hall, 15 Winslow st.

The Reverend William T. Garland, O.S.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Garland of 21 Longfellow rd., will be ordained to the priesthood on Feb. 3 in Collegiate Church of Christ the Teacher at Merrimack College, No. Andover. His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, will be the ordaining prelate.

Entering the Order of St. Augustine in 1953, Fr. Garland studied for one year at Our Mother of Good Counsel Novitiate, New York. In 1958 Fr. Garland graduated from Villanova University and after graduate studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., he was awarded a Master of Arts degree in 1961.

Fr. Garland will offer his First Solemn Mass on Feb. 4 at 4 p.m. in St. Agnes Church. He will be assisted by the Right Reverend Oscar O'Gorman, Pastor, as Archpriest; the Reverend John M. Driscoll, O.S.A., Vice-President of Merrimack College as Deacon; the Reverend James A. Wenzel, O.S.A. of St. Augustine's Parish in Andover as Subdeacon. The sermon for the occasion will be delivered by the Reverend Jerome A. Holland, O.S.A., Director of Student Personnel Services, Archbishop Carroll High School, Washington, D.C. Fr. Garland will be tendered a reception at the Town Hall on the evening of the 4th from 6:30 until 9.

A grand prize consisted of a camera kit which was awarded to Robert Perrell. The second grand prize was a webelo wallet and key case to Stephen Azarian.

Feb. 2, at the Holy Cross Cathedral, Boston. James P. O'Brien of Arlington will be ordained to the priesthood by His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston.

Father O'Brien was born in Arlington and educated in Saint Agnes Grammar school, Matignon High school and Saint Philip Neri. From Saint Philip He entered Cardinal O'Connell Seminary in Jamaica Plain and has now completed his studies at Saint John's Seminary in Brighton.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. O'Brien of 22 Sherborn st. and brother of Mr. Paul D. O'Brien of 17 Everett st.

Feb. 11, Father O'Brien will celebrate his First Solemn mass in the Church of Saint Agnes at 10:30.

Officers of this Mass will be: Assistant Priest, Rev. Edward P. Kenealy, Chaplain at Holy Ghost Hospital, Cambridge; Deacon, Rt. Rev. Francis S. Rossiter, Professor at Saint John's Seminary, Brighton; Subdeacon, Rev. James J. Haddad, curate at Saint John's, Roxbury; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. John E. Farrell, a classmate of Father O'Brien; Preacher, Rt. Rev. Oscar R. O'Gorman, Pastor of Saint Agnes.

A reception will be held at Saint Agnes Grammar School hall, on the afternoon of the 11th.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Tweedie Jr. of Philadelphia, second child, Eolin Ann, on Jan. 12. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O. Albert Kuper of Ruxton, Maryland, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Tweedie, 30 Indian Hill rd.

Two coming events were announced. Cub Pack 388 will participate in the scout exposition to be held at Harvard Stadium on Feb. 24. The Pack will present a window display in the offices of J. Q. Rush beginning Feb. 5.

Peter Adamian, 317 Mystic st., has been reelected to the Oodidge Bank & Trust Co.'s board of directors.

Seat Belt Crusade

Community-wide participation in the Arlington Women's Club's "Crusade for Seat Belts" is being urged by Mrs. Hollis M. Gott, president.

"Far too few of us are taking advantage of this proven life-saving device due, in part, to lack of full understanding of the needs and benefits to be gained through regular seat belt use," said Mrs. Gott.

Each year nearly 40,000 lives are lost, and approximately 1,500,000 citizens of all ages impaired or disfigured in traffic accidents because full advantage is not taken of recognized lifesaving devices now at our fingertips. Research confirms an immediate need for all motor vehicle passengers to be protected through regular use of seat belts.

To give national impetus to this need, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, as a part of its continuing lifesaving work, launched a "Women's Crusade for Seat Belts," in cooperation with the Auto Industries Highway Safety committee.

STUDENTS of Arlington Technical and Vocational High school on January 22nd attending a library course in Robbins Library, are shown the use of the catalog by Mrs. Esther McQuaid, head of circulation, and Lucy Carpenter of the Young People's department.

ROBBINS LIBRARY

Classes in the understanding and use of library facilities, which are conducted each year for students of the Arlington Technical and Vocational High school by the Robbins Library are currently in progress there.

This year the course is being given to members of the Freshman class, which has been divided for the purpose into groups, each going to the library three times for lessons and a fourth for examinations.

The series has been arranged through the cooperation of Edmund J. Lewis, director of the Arlington Technical and Vocational High school and William V. Delaney, academic instructor. Teaching the classes and assisting the students are Mrs. Esther McQuaid, head of the circulation dept. and Miss Lucy Carpenter, of the Young People's dept.

Commenting upon the program, which includes instruction in the use of the Library, the Dewey Decimal System, the catalog, and reference materials as well as practice in locating information, and a tour of library facilities; Mr. Delaney said, "the library visits are a very valuable contribution to our English program at the Technical High School."

He also expressed his appreciation of the helpfulness and the cooperation of Miss Judith E. Stromdahl, librarian, Mrs. Esther McQuaid, Miss Lucy Carpenter, and other members of the staff.

CONVOCATION

The largest Sophomore Convocation for students at the Boston College School of Nursing, since the School was founded in 1947, was held Jan. 28, when 96 student-nurses were presented to Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston at St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill.

Local sophomores are Ellen M. Connor, 14 Venner rd. and Patricia A. McCarthy, 17 Oakland ave.

Clear Road Ahead

William F. Callahan, chairman of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, breathed new life into the adage "if at first you don't succeed, try again" when he shrugged off two failures and marketed $180-million in bonds to finance the toll road extension into Boston.

Even Mr. Callahan's detractors, and they are legion, can't begrudge him what without question probably was the greatest victory of a long career. Soon the Turnpike Authority will start building the extension into Boston from the Rte. 128 termination of the turnpike at Weston.

The sale of the bonds to outside buyers demonstrates a faith in this state that should prove stimulating to all, and shows powerful confidence in the tremendous potential of our city, and state.

Now that the thorny turnpike extension question has been resolved, it's high time that actions be stepped up in other areas of our much-needed highway building program, especially the controversial Inner Belt.

Without question, many would have liked to see the turnpike extension dream turn into a pipe dream. However, undeniably a definite and firm start on the toll road extension now is better than a questionable start of a freeway at some unknown time in the undetermined future.

Now it can be full throttle for all phases of the highway program, provided certain kinks are worked out. Imagine the confusion if the Authority had failed to market its bonds! A long, expensive bitterly partisan political and legal war would have erupted over construction of the roadway.

Instead, it's a clear track ahead for this important project.

That Man About Town
By MAT

Well, the old trickery stuff is going on — same as last year in the Selectmen's race — only this year it's the School Committee joust.

Papers were filed for three school candidates just before closing time by a "friend." The names are David Parrella, 22 Mystic Valley pkwy.; Thomas Galvin Jr., 201 Appleton st.; William Burke, 80 Brantwood rd.

We are told that the Advocate phoned all three. The results:

Mr. A — who is calling please? The Advocate. Sorry, not home.

Mr. B — sorry, nobody lives here by that name (However, possibly a misprint of address in the Town Clerk's informal booklet at the counter).

Mr. C — (person answering) I didn't know that he is running; (then, the candidate) yes, I guess I am.

What's all this nonsense for? The answer is obvious — to keep the incumbents in. The more a race is cluttered, the better the incumbents' chances. We want to state right now, however, we are confident the three present members — Brown, Daily and Morine, all up for re-election — have no part in this business, positively.

A bonafide candidate, Leonard D. Clark of 256 Mountain ave. (he has a phone, lives there, and wants to run) is charging that the papers of the three

RESIGNS
Warren S. Berg, 40 Pleasant View rd., has resigned from the Development Commission. The 5-year member expressed "sincere satisfaction" with the Commission and said he feels it to be a great asset to the community, but that personal commitments force his resignation.

Citizens Safety Committee Begun

In compliance with the request of Gov. Volpe the Board of Selectmen at a meeting held Jan. 15 appointed a Citizens Safety committee to promote a citizens crusade for traffic safety on the local level.

Members appointed are Horace H. Homer, 48 Florence ave.; Edward C. Monahan, 4 Ernest rd.; Charles H. Downs, 2 Orchard pl.; Kenneth A. Cameron, 116 Jason st. and Edward S. Bonaccorso, 37 Alton st.

Also, Dr. Charles B. Burbank, 22 Lanterman; Rev. Robert W. Bullock, 488 Appleton st.; Rev. William W. Lewis, 66 Pleasant st.; Leonard Tibbets, 18 Bradley rd.; John T. Stokes, 285 Mass. ave. and Charles S. Johnson, 259 Mystic st.

Also, Hollis M. Gott, 90 Churchill ave.; Mrs. Kenneth C. Spengler, 189 Jason st.; Mrs. Gordon P. Thompson, 66 Hutchinson rd.; Francis N. O'Hara, 5 Johnson rd.; William F. Carty, 29 Beacon st. and Arthur Guarente, 27 Radcliffe rd.

Also, Thomas H. Egan, 83 Grand View rd.; Leonard D. Wood, 25 Woodland st.; Walter Moynihan, 637 Mass. ave. and Albert E. Ryan, 252 Park ave.

The committee held an organizational meeting at the Town Hall Jan. 24 at which time Albert E. Ryan and Edward S. Bonaccorso were appointed permanent chairman and secretary, respectively.

The crusade for traffic safety will be a month-by-month program throughout 1962, and it will be the purpose of the local committee to furnish the general public with pertinent information pertaining to traffic safety in an effort to reduce the toll of deaths and serious injuries on our highways.

I wish that through the medium of your newspaper you could encourage the children of our schools who are eligible to elect a foreign language to do so.

The time is not too far away when traveling between foreign countries will be only a matter of a few hours and many people will take the opportunity to travel, especially, when you can budget most of these trips.

I believe it would cement a better relationship to be able to converse with other people in their native tongue, here and abroad.

Many of us here in this country are Americans, born of many nationalities and we fail to learn the tongue of our parents who immigrated to America.

Consequently by not knowing how to read or write their language we soon lose our ties with relatives in foreign countries.

The schools of Arlington have a very fine Language Lab system. I believe that the children of Arlington should avail themselves of this opportunity.

Once they have mastered the language, I am sure that a new field of interest would be opened to them.

Sincerely yours,
Christopher J. Cammarata

questioning job applicants in the state about their religion. Since then the state court of Appeals has ordered that the state Commission Against Discrimination make a full investigation of the issue to determine if Aramco discriminates against Jews in its hiring policies.

When George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled Nazi leader, sought to make public speeches in New York, Justice Epstein ruled against him. He declared that the constitutional right of free speech could not be invoked to permit Nazi advocates of violence to make public speeches.

The N.Y. Civil Liberties Union took the decision to the Appellate Division where his decision was reversed. He upheld Police Commissioner Kennedy's right to forbid New York policemen from holding outside jobs. He was the Solicitor General for ten years under Gov. Herbert Lehmann, and in 1953 was appointed Deputy Mayor of N.Y. under Mayor Wagner.

In his capacity as Solicitor General he argued before the United States Supreme Court, successfully, the constitutionality of the Social Security Act, the minimum wage law, and the State Labor Relations Act. At one time 45 states requested him to represent them jointly on the presentation of some of these constitutional questions.

He was a great lover of sports and for years he worked on problems of juvenile delinquency, stressing strongly the family as the main factor in its cause and its cure. Many students in his classes in Arlington were his guests at many sports events at Harvard. The day John Paul Jones broke the world's mile record, and Ted Meredith of Penn. the 400 yd. record, Henry Epstein had his students with him at the Harvard Stadium. He was a brilliant young teacher and it was no surprise to those he taught that he would attain the heights he did.

He was many years ahead of his time, and those that knew him well will remember his devotion to the problems of human rights, Arlington High school, and those who came under his teachings, benefited greatly by their association with Henry Epstein.

Glenn Thoren's composition "Mist of Paradise," which took first place in the competition, will be orchestrated by Kalman Novak, and will be performed by the full A.I.M. orchestra at its next concert on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 10.

Barbara Truelson, who took second place in the competition, will be invited to play her piece on the piano at this concert.

The February 10th concert is for children in grades 4 and above. It will be held in the Lexington High school auditorium with performances at 1:30 and 3:15.

Theme of the concert will be "Two Sides to Four Composers." To show the human side of the great classical composers, Conductor Novak has selected a program featuring both light and serious works by Bach, Brahms, Beethoven and Mozart. Each piece on the program will be introduced with explanatory comments by Novak.

Cites Case On Dumping

To the editor:
As a reader and subscriber of the Advocate for more than 30 years, may I compliment you on your new column, "Collins Corner."

Having been active in town affairs since the early '30s, many of the matters discussed by Mr. Collins are familiar to me.

I was particularly interested in his last column regarding the fallacy of the old saying "You can't beat City Hall."

Back in 1939 I was a member of a group which also "beat City Hall." At that time the town operated a dump on Wright st., which is essentially the same tract of land that the present dump is located, only at the other end. A group of residents of this area took the Town to court, alleging a nuisance and asking an injunction against the town from continuing the dump. The case was heard before a master, Atty. John Daly of Cambridge, who subsequently was city solicitor of Cambridge for many years. After several hearings in which witnesses testified for both sides, the master reported to the court as follows:

Admission of Facts by the Town
The Town admits that the defendant MacAllister granted to it the right to dump or deposit upon his land, ashes, refuse, rubbish and other materials other than garbage, collected within the town. (Case NO. 11220, 1945.)

Paragraph 10 of Master's report, John Daly: "The houses of the four plaintiffs are located from 200 to 1000 feet from the dump. I find that there is a sufficient quantity of animal and vegetable waste in the dump to cause a stale, musty odor of decaying animal and vegetable matter as to be noticeable as far away as their houses. Of course the state of the weather would influence the strength and offensiveness of this odor on warm, muggy days, and it would be more noticeable then in cold weather. This feature of the dump is sufficiently objectionable and annoying as to constitute a nuisance. As long as general household rubbish is put in this dump some animal and vegetable waste is bound to be included. In theory this may not be so, but in practice it can hardly be expected that all the householders of a town of 40,000 people will be so careful that no waste will be included. If an indinerator is not to be used, the only effective way for the town to avoid causing a nuisance and still use the dump, would be to put ashes only there, and take the general rubbish somewhere else."

"Doubtless this would result in additional cost for disposal of the rubbish, depending on how far away a suitable dump could be found. I am of the opinion and so rule, for the purpose of making the finding in this paragraph, of the existence of a nuisance and that additional cost does not warrant the town in doing acts in a comparatively well built section which result in a nuisance."

Stipulation
Now comes the defendants, the Town of Arlington, James R. Smith, Loren W. Marsh and Willard A. Wallace, and, without waiving any rights stipulate as follows:

"Until further order of the court the said defendants will not deposit or cause to be deposited upon the premises of the defendant MacAllister at the intersection of Wright st., Dothan st. and Draeon st. in Arlington any garbage or rubbish containing garbage in such unreasonable amount as to interfere with the reasonable comfort of, the enjoyment of life by the four plaintiffs, Weagle, Lansing, Connell and Bartlett upon the premises or other persons of ordinary health and sensibilities occupying their premises." Signed by the Town of Arlington and Smith, Marsh and Wallace by Town Counsel Paul M. White.

Following filing of this report with the court the Town closed this dump permanently. It is my understanding that the findings of the court in this case have never been challenged or set aside.

The only comment I will make is that it is too bad that the present Board of Selectmen have, so far, chosen to ignore these findings, of which they are aware, by authorizing another dump in this neighborhood which, by virtue of the fact that garbage is now included with refuse, makes it far more of a nuisance than the old Wright st. dump.

I doubt that if Leonard Collins and George H. Lowe were on the Board of Selectmen today, that such bed of filth would be allowed to exist within the boundaries of the Town of Arlington.

Sincerely,
Frank H. Lansing
33 Berkeley st.

To the editor,
As a taxpayer with a limited income, being retired, I am very pleased to hear that Thomas R. Rawson is a candidate for Selectman.

In these times with our taxes soaring every year ($5.70 coming up) we need a man with the long experience Mr. Rawson has had, both on the Board of Public Works and Board of Selectmen.

He understands the workings of every department under the jurisdiction of the Board of Selectmen and has saved the taxpayers of Arlington many thousands of dollars on sidewalk construction alone due to his contracting experience while a member of both boards.

President Kennedy has stressed the need of Physical Fitness programs for our youth due to the fact that out of seven young men examined for service to our country, two are accepted and five are rejected as physically unfit.

Mr. Rawson has given freely of his time for many years directing Physical Fitness programs for the Boy's club and St. James Boys. He is still engaged in this worthy program for the youth of our Town.

I honestly believe Mr. Rawson's election to the Board of Selectmen will be an asset to the present Board and a boon to the taxpayers of Arlington.

Sincerely,
Joseph J. Barry

Advocate's Policy —
On Political Campaigns

RELEASES:
Two will be accepted: a brief one with an outline of essential facts; a longer one on the platform and proposed action, etc. (but not over two typewritten papers, double spaced).

NEWS:
Items, involving candidates, which are truly newsworthy will be used, but in competition with other town news. (In other words, no obligation).

PICTURES:
Portrait photos of candidates will be used only once in the news columns prior to the last issue before election; possibly the editor may use them again if, for example, a hot race is indicated — but, naturally, all in the race will be pictured. News pictures will be used if at a non-political or newsworthy event.

LETTERS:
Letters "to the editor," supporting a candidate, will only be used when it contains some news angle or some strictly personal knowledge of the writer or a citation of candidates' important acts in the past.

DEADLINE:
The Advocate editor would appreciate the earliest possible copy; material, naturally, will be kept in strictest confidence; absolutely nothing will be accepted after Tuesday noon.

LAST ISSUE:

- 1) In the final issue before Election Day, no material which makes sudden, new charges will be printed;
 - 2) All straight publicity and letters "to the editor" will be charged for and so marked as "political advertising";
 - 3) The Advocate strictly reserves the right to publish all factual news (as to rise in the tax rate, etc.) whether it be for or against any candidate's claims or status.
- ADVERTISING:
- 1) Early reservation of space and page will be on a first-come basis;
 - 2) Prior to an issue, space reservation must be made by Monday noon; actual copy (with a few minor additions) by Tuesday at 9 a.m.; no proofs will be allowed out of our office;
 - 3) No Page I accepted;
 - 4) To protect other candidates, advertisements must be paid for in advance;
 - 5) All paid advertisements should be signed by some responsible, registered voter with address.

Arlington High's new math team recently won the second round of interschool competition against eight other teams.

This competition was held at No. Cambridge Catholic high. In February and April there will be more competition, and on May 5, the championship.

The teams competing with Arlington are Lexington, Swampscott, Haverhill, Winchester, Revere, Matignon, No. Cambridge and Malden Catholic high schools.

At a Debating club meeting, a "round robin tournament" is being planned to determine the best debaters in each class. The subject for debate will be Federal aid to education. In the future, the club hopes to start meets with other schools.

Senior Billy Grannan grabbed 24 points in a recent varsity basketball game to clinch the Arlington win over Waltham, 92-40. In other action, Arlington lost to a strong Brookline team, 49-43, and smothered Newton South 60-46.

Mrs. Stockman, French teacher at the high school, showed slides of "France Today," taken on her trip to France, to the International club at their Jan. 18 meeting.

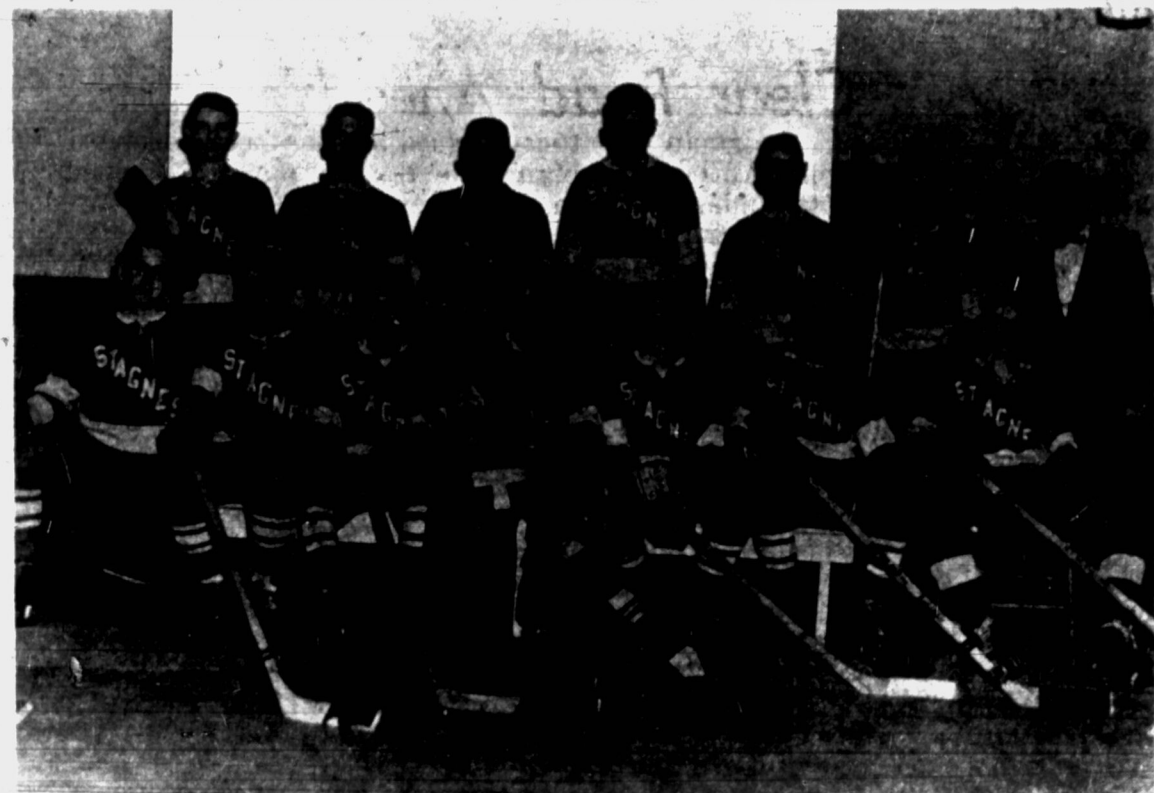

In December, these Seniors were accepted to local colleges: Julie O'Connell to Boston University, Karen O'Leary and Evelyn Oley to Boston College, and Richard Barnaby and Stanley Genthner to Northeastern.

Twenty student volunteers from AHS have signed up for the Bedford Veterans hospital project. These volunteers will give part of their time in the afternoons to the veterans at the hospital.

The Student Council held their meeting Jan. 22 and decided upon a date for the junior prom — April 13th. The Student Council also sponsored the January 26th dance.

Representatives from Aquinas Secretarial school and Bentley school of Accounting and Finance have visited the high school for those pupils interested in a business career.

Of the eleven Massachusetts high school students who were winners of the 21st Science Talent Search

CHILDREN'S PLAY

Arlington alumnae of Smith College in conjunction with Belmont alumnae are sponsoring the production of Sleeping Beauty to be performed by the Wesley Players in the Belmont High school on Feb. 3 at 2:30.

The proceeds from the play will aid the College Scholarship fund. Each year this fund provides a local girl with a scholarship to Smith College.

Arlington members active in this project are Mrs. Alan Altman, Miss Louise Barker, Mrs. James Burke, Mrs. Wilbur Canaday, Mrs. James Daily Mrs. John Fox, Mrs. Joseph Lyman, Mrs. Shattuck Osborne, Mrs. Thomas Reid, Miss Elizabeth Rice, and Mrs. Irving Stein.

ACADEMY APPOINTEE

Named as second alternate to West Point was Frederick P. Fairchild, 12 Bartlett ave., who was appointed by an impartial advisory board, Dr. Andrew Torrielli of Belmont and board members, according to a release from the office of Cong. Brad Morse.

for the Westinghouse Scholarship and Award, John Howell, a senior at AHS, was one. All of the group will be recommended for admission and scholarship awards to the nation's top colleges and universities. The judging for the honor awards was based on individual science project reports and a scientific aptitude examination.

Recently accepted to the college of their choice were seniors Julie O'Connell, to Boston University; Karen O'Leary and Evelyn Oley, to Boston College; and Richard Barnaby, Patricia White and Stanley Genthner, to Northeastern.

"Communism In Trouble" - - - Monitor Editor

"Revolution is sweeping the world and is based on rising expectations. Asia and Africa see what the United States has and they want it too," said Mr. Robert R. Brunn, American News editor of the Christian Science Monitor, at the Woman's Club meeting January 25th.

"Do not think Communism is always winning, they are having much trouble in both China and Russia. They win with armies and guns, we win by free ideas. Our foreign policy is made by the citizens of every town, city and the way you live democracy here in Arlington.

"The United States must give moral example which is the basis of foreign policy. You can help by sending your best people to Washington," said he.

Marcia Gott told of her experiences at Girls' State 1961 at Bridgewater State College; John Nuhebian and John Howell reported on their week at Boys' State 1961 at Amherst.

The young people are recommended by the faculty of the high school. The American Legion is the sponsor of a citizenship by living program. The purpose is to teach how government functions by having young people participate actively in the program.

Each agreed they would be better individuals and better citizens because of their experiences.

Guests were the League of Women Voters and the American Legion Auxiliary.

APPOINTED

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N.C., announces the appointment of T. J. Sullivan as manager of its Arlington, sales division. He succeeds G. H. Johnson, who has been promoted to the position of assistant manager of the company's Worcester sales department.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan are the parents of one daughter, Theresa Joan,

MEMBERSHIP DANCE

Ordained

His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing, announces that Reverend Joseph Vincent McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke E. McCarthy of 20 Farrington st., and brother of Margaret M. McCarthy, will be ordained to the Sacred Priesthood on Friday, Feb. 2, at St. Margaret's church in Lowell.

The Most Reverend Thomas J. Riley, D.D. will be the ordaining Bishop.

Father McCarthy was graduated from St. Agnes school and Matignon High school. He also studied at Cardinal O'Connell seminary and Saint Clement's school of Philosophy before entering Saint John's Theological seminary.

Father McCarthy will sing his first Solemn Mass on Sunday, Feb. 4, 12 noon, at Saint Agnes church. Officers of the Mass will be Rt. Rev. Oscar O'Gorman, assistant priest; Rev. William J. Pero, deacon; Rev. Bernard J. Lane, subdeacon; Rev. Thomas J. Buckley, master of ceremonies; Rev. Robert E. O'Brien, preacher.

WCC Curling

Curling at Winchester Country club has been on the very active side these past two weeks. With the famous Winchester International Bonspiel coming up on Feb. 15, competition has been keen to represent the Club.

The winning teams are:
Skip, Tyke Wilcox; mate, Bob Ingersoll; 2nd, Jim Wilcox; lead, Ed Frost.
Skip, Paul Sheeran; mate, Bill Croston; 2nd, George DeVries; lead, Paul Rimback.

Skip, George Whitten; mate, Ken Colony; 2nd, Ron Davis; lead, Ed Little.

These teams will have strong competition for there are eleven Canadian teams entered, plus the best teams from the East Coast.

This should be the best Bonspiel east of Detroit.

The Paul Sheeran rink won the Winchester Country club playdowns for the honor of representing Winchester in the forthcoming state playdowns for the National Championship. Curling beautifully for Paul were Stan Neil, Bill Croston, and Ralph Bonnell Jr.

They defeated the formidable team of Tyke Wilcox skip, Bob Ingersoll, Jim Wilcox, and Ed Frost in a best two out of three finals. Score, 13 to 7 and 9 to 8.

Two of the winning rinks are not new to national competition. Bill Croston was a member of the rink that won a third place medal at Green Bay, Wisconsin, in 1959, and Paul Sheeran skipped the rink that topped second at Chicago, Illinois, in 1960.

The State Championships will be held at Winchester, starting the week of Feb. 4, with the National's following on March 4 through 7.

Duped By Woman
Just possibly the Talking Transparent Woman at Boston's Museum of Science has found the Fountain of Youth.

This plexiglas lady gives a 15-minute recorded explanation of body structure and function, during which her internal organs are illuminated. She starts off with the words, "I am a young woman 28 years old."

The other day an eight-year-old boy on a return visit to the Museum — he'd been a year ago — listened intently to this introduction.

Suddenly he turned to his mother beside him. In outraged tones, expressing complete disgust with the Woman's (and indirectly all womankind's) duplicity, he whispered, "She said that last year!"

BIRTH

Born Jan. 10 to Mr. and Mrs. James McCabe, 64 Crosby st., a fourth child, third son, Robert William, at St. Elizabeth's hospital. Mr. McCabe is Arlington's Building Inspector.

Youth Council In Statement

"The vital force behind the Girl Scout organization is the volunteer leader. It is she who inspires the girls with ideals of character, conduct, patriotism and service, that they may become happy and resourceful citizens," said Girl Scout leader Mrs. Rochelle Prescott. Arlington Girl Scouts are set-up in six neighborhoods, according to school districts. In the following weeks the Advocate will publish pictures of leaders from these neighborhoods. During the golden anniversary year of scouting it is fitting that the women who are leaders should be brought to the attention of the community to which they render such valuable service.

—Marine Pvt. William F. Connors, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Connors of 93 Brooks ave., completed basic training, Jan. 11, at Parris Island, S.C.

The Arlington Youth Council wants to clarify and further explain the news article appearing in this newspaper last week.

The Council is a totally independent organization made up of representatives of youth servicing organizations and private citizens whose aim is that of maintaining a wholesome, physically fit and socially responsible youth population for Arlington.

In the past year and a half of its existence, this Council has already made public results of a survey of recreational facilities for our young people, and has printed and drawn up with the cooperation of youngsters themselves, the Arlington Youth Code.

The Arlington Youth

Council is not seeking town funds to carry out its aims. It has, in fact, been operating with little or no funds. It is grateful to the Arlington Community Chest who last year contributed $500 to the Council and to the Boys' Club Associates who made possible the printing of the Code.

A committee of the Council has for the past year been studying the problem of delinquency as it exists in Arlington and ways and means by which further delinquency can be prevented.

Its investigation to date does not indict the entire youth population of Arlington as delinquents; rather, it reveals that a major portion of our youth population is one of which we can be proud.

There does exist, however, a small percentage of youngsters known to the police and courts who do present a serious problem to the community. We are concerned, naturally, with this group and even more concerned with the influence this group may, and does have on other youngsters.

In line with other community and national concern for the prevention and treatment of delinquency, the Arlington Youth Council is applying for a federal grant under the newly enacted Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Offenses Control Act of 1961, more commonly known as the Green Bill.

This federal legislation makes funds available to communities to carry out a prevention and treatment program. The selection of communities to receive these grants requires the recipients participation in the program. This must be a community-wide program involving not only full participation but one that clearly indicates some willingness to assume some of the financial responsibility.

The Council has, therefore, been exploring with town officials not only their feeling on the matter, but ways and means through which the town could actively participate.

Again we state that we are not requesting funds for the continued projects of the Council; we are requesting some expression from the town in participating in this program by authorizing the creation of a board to direct and supervise the project and to make part-time clerical help available.

We are therefore, planning to submit an article in the town warrant for the foregoing.

Our application form for these federal funds has already been received and is being completed.

The new service which we are recommending is not "an expansion of the program that has been inaugurated in the first six grades in Arlington", it is rather a service staffed by professional social workers who will be concerned with a co-ordination of the existing services, offer treatment to the hard-to-reach youngsters and to act as consultants to the many volunteers and other professionals in the community already committed to helping youngsters.

Kent Charges 'Immature' Politics In Campaign

Charles R. Kent, candidate for Selectman, filed nomination papers early last week.

Kent is a graduate of the Arlington school system; he attended Worcester State College and Suffolk Law School. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from Boston University in 1951.

As an elected member of the Arlington School Committee, Kent was appointed to represent this board on the Stratton School Building Committee. Kent also serves on the Arlington Youth Council.

He is employed as an executive with an international insurance company and is treasurer of the Bay State club. In a statement to the press Kent said, "I am pleased by the response I have received in the early stages of my campaign. It is my intention to stress my qualifications and previous experience in local government."

"I will entrust to the Arlington voters, whom I consider very discerning, to review the qualifications and experience of all other candidates and make their own decision."

"Certainly, I am aware of the shallow and false issues being used by others in this contest. However, I refuse to conduct this type of campaign. I am confident that the voters will not be misled by such immature politicking."

States Platform

William A. Barnstead, in announcing his candidacy for Selectman, stated that at the present time he sees three major problems for the citizens of Arlington: (we quoted - Ed.)

1. Master Plan of the Planning Board on which he will make his position known as the campaign progresses.

2. Taxes in Arlington on which he has a positive plan with a slightly different approach and which will be made known shortly.

3. M.T.A. shelter at Harvard Square, both the MTA and the city of Cambridge are in favor of an underground connection as are the people of Arlington at a conference with MTA Engineers, Barnstead was told the delay is in no way connected with Politics, but is due to the need to eliminate the contamination of exhaust gases of the diesel buses. The same problem at the Boston Common Underground Garage was solved by exhaust equipment which removes the contamination. This, however is a tremendously expensive system and not practical for the MTA. A new approach which eliminates the source of contamination is being worked on and must have final approval of the Mass. Dept. of Public Health.

"If elected I pledge continued interest in solving this problem so that the people of Arlington may have the underground shelter in Harvard Square."

To the editor,

I would like to take this opportunity today to thank those many, many fine people who took time out from a busy day's schedule to sign my nomination papers enabling me to become a candidate for the office of school committee.

I feel that the large number of signatures I obtained is an expression of confidence which I respect, and if privileged to serve in this important office, I will utilize my training and experience to add sound planning to the committee so that the best interests of all the pupils, parents, and taxpayers will be met.

Very truly yours,
Edward G. McCann
Candidate for School Committee

To the editor,

To the 2457 Arlington voters who signed my nomination papers — my sincere thanks for your confidence in me.

As a candidate for the office of Selectman, my travels have taken me into every section of Arlington to meet our citizens and better understand their views regarding our Town and the way they would like to see it operated.

Many people have inquired as to whether I am related to Arlington's former Chief of Police "Archie" Bullock.

In fairness to the other Selectmen, candidates it should be stated that I am not related to the former Police Chief. I feel I should not in any way borrow on his name or reputation.

On March 5th, Arlington voters will choose a new Selectman. They should fully evaluate my candidacy on the basis of my qualifications, my experience and

Plan A Debate

The Arlington Democratic Town Committee will hold a debate next Thursday, Feb. 8, in Junior Library hall, with State Chairman "Pat" Lynch representing the Democratic State Committee and Edward Gleason representing C.O.D. (Commonwealth of Organized Democrats).

Subject of the debate: "Whether reform is necessary in the Massachusetts Democratic Party, and if so, whether it should come from within the party organization as represented by the State Committee or from a group outside such as C.O.D."

Chairman of the Arlington Committee, Bill Collins, expects a lively discussion and interested Democrats or Independents may attend.

The program I will offer. Certainly, no citizen would want to vote on the basis of a candidate's name alone or whether he is or is not related to some other person bearing the same last name.

Sincerely,
John W. Bullock
